Ahoy mates!

Nautical Jewelry Originals “NJO” is at a pivotal juncture, marked by both sorrow and excitement. With the passing of our founder “Captain Marty”in 2023 NJO has found safe harbor under the stewardship of the renowned Nautical Treasure Jewelry Co. Headquartered in the palm lined shores of Miami, Florida, this veteran-owned enterprise brings with it a legacy of excellence and a shared passion for jewelry, art, and the maritime world. With new hands at the helm, we set sail into a promising future, guided by the spirit of our founder and propelled by a commitment to honor his legacy with every wave we navigate. This transition signifies a new era for NJO, one filled with promise and dedication to upholding the legacy of excellence forged over decades.

Just as a lighthouse guides ships safely through stormy waters, “Capt. Marty”vision, passion, and dedication have been the beacon of light for Nautical Jewelry Originals and we are eternally grateful for his leadership for the last 45 years. While there has been a change in command, our compass remains steadfast, guided by the principles of quality, authenticity, and innovation. We honor Captain Marty's legacy by embracing this change with resilience and grace, weaving his vision into every facet of our endeavors. As time marches forward, so too must NJO navigate uncharted waters, guided by the indomitable spirit of Captain Marty who will live on in every piece of jewelry we create.

Since our inception, Nautical Jewelry Originals has been captivating sailors and sea lovers across the eastern seaboard and the Caribbean with its bespoke nautical jewelry collection. From the serene shores of Cape Cod to the vibrant landscapes of Key West, our creations have adorned thousands of enthusiasts, serving as enduring symbols of their passion for the sea. Our ethos of excellence, the hallmark of our craftsmanship, and the dedication to providing you with the finest nautical jewelry have never been compromised even though they have been imitated. Our classic designs, forged in the crucible of maritime tradition will continue to serve as the anchor of our collection. As the famous John A. Shedd quote goes “A ship in harbour is safe, but that is not what ships are built for.” We are thrilled to unfurl the sails of innovation, introducing fresh designs and novel concepts that will complement our existing repertoire, offering you a broader canvas upon which to paint your love for the sea.

From the entire crew here at “NJO” we want to assure you that the forcast is clear and our commitment to providing you with the highest quality nautical jewelry remains unwavered. Our classic Nautical Jewelry Original designs that you’ve known and loved for decades will continue to be the cornerstone of our collection while adding new designs along side exceptional custom design work from the most skilled artists in the world. Whether exploring our collection online or at future boat shows, we invite you to experience firsthand the quality and passion that define Nautical Jewelry Originals.

Fort Jefferson is a massive 19th-century coastal fortress located in the remote Dry Tortugas National Park, about 70 miles west of Key West. Originally built as a coastal defense structure, it is one of the largest brick fortifications in the Western Hemisphere and was used as a prison during the Civil War era.

Today, Fort Jefferson continues to captivate both history enthusiasts and nature lovers with its rich legacy and breathtaking surroundings. The serene turquoise waters, diverse wildlife, and remote island charm create a unique destination for travelers seeking both educational and recreational experiences. The Dry Tortugas are also a haven for outdoor adventurers;anglers, spear fishermen, and treasure hunters are drawn by local legends of sunken pirate treasure and hidden artifacts.
